CONSUMER AND GOVERNMENTAL AFFAIRS BUREAU ANNOUNCES EFFECTIVE DATE FOR NEW ONE-RING SCAM RULE PROVISIONS

CG Docket No. 20-93

On November 30, 2020, the Commission released the One-Ring Scam Report and Order, implementing section 12 of the TRACED Act¹ and continuing the Commission's efforts to eliminate illegal and unwanted calls by enabling voice service providers to block calls from numbers associated with a one-ring scam.² The One-Ring Scam Report and Order provides that the new rule provisions would become effective 30 days after the Commission publishes the notice in the Federal Register.³

The Commission published the One-Ring Scam Report and Order, including the new one-ring scam rule provisions, in the Federal Register on January 13, 2021.⁴ Therefore, the provisions of the One-Ring Scam Report and Order and the associated rule changes will take effect on February 12, 2021.
